St. Paul's School Welcomes Nicklaus King!

I grew up between the hardness of concrete and the harshness of street lights so thick that nothing but the grace of God could pierce them, in suburban Illinois. One fortunate day, the divine grace did pierce through, and I realized that I should truly love God and make Him the center of my life. This I proceeded to attempt in various dissatisfying ways throughout high school until the Divine Providence led me to Wyoming Catholic College (WCC).

Many of the everyday experiences of WCC community life are still my favorite hobbies: leading trips as long as 21 days in the Wyoming mountains or Utah deserts; singing in and directing choirs of Gregorian Chant and sacred polyphony; playing folk songs on the porch or around a fire; teaching contradancing or swing dancing; reading poetry and Scripture in Latin and guiding others through the wilderness in this language on weeklong immersion trips; and discussing the Perennial Philosophy of the Western Culture constantly with friends.

My goal as a student of our Western Culture and particularly as a teacher at St. Paul's School is to guide others to cultivate themselves and their communities according to the image of Christ the Λογος (the Word). In particular, I hope to lead students to wonder at the Good in the classroom and, outside of it, to live always in light of this wonder .

Crecí entre la dureza del hormigón y la dureza de las farolas tan gruesas que nada más que la gracia de Dios podría perforarlas en los suburbios de Illinois. Un día afortunado, la gracia divina atravesó, y me di cuenta de que debía amar verdaderamente a Dios y convertirlo en el centro de mi vida. Esto lo insirigí de varias maneras insatisfactorias a lo largo de la escuela secundaria hasta que la Divina Providencia me llevó al Colegio Católico de Wyoming (CMI).

Muchas de las experiencias cotidianas de la vida comunitaria del CMI siguen siendo mis pasatiempos favoritos: liderar viajes hasta 21 días en las montañas de Wyoming o desiertos de Utah; cantando y dirigiendo coros de canto gregoriano y polifonía sagrada; tocando canciones populares en el porche o alrededor de un fuego; enseñando contradance o swing dance; leer poesía y Escritura en latín y guiar a los demás a través del desierto en este idioma en viajes de inmersión de una semana; y discutir la Filosofía Perenne de la Cultura Occidental constantemente con amigos.

Mi objetivo como estudiante de nuestra Cultura Occidental y particularmente como profesor en la Escuela de San Pablo es guiar a los demás a cultivarse a sí mismos y a sus comunidades de acuerdo con la imagen de Cristo el (la Palabra). En particular, espero llevar a los alumnos a preguntarse por el Bien en el aula y, fuera de él, a vivir siempre a la luz de esta maravilla.

ORACION DURANTE EL TIEMPO DEL CORONAVIRUS

Consuélanos, Señor, pues somos como tus discípulos en la tormenta que sacudió los mares, inquietos por lo que se avecina. Nos dirigimos a Ti, nuestro Guía y Salvador, para que calmes nuestros corazones en nuestros momentos de necesidad y escuches nuestra oración: Sana a todos quienes están enfermos con el coronavirus y protege a las personas mayores y a los más vulnerables. Dale fuerza a todos quienes cuidan de nuestra salud y sabiduría a quienes buscan y luchan por encontrar una cura. Abre nuestros ojos y nuestros corazones, para que podamos ver más allá de nuestras necesidades inmediatas y ayudar a aquellos que necesitan ayuda. Amen.
